THE CHILIAN TYRANT.

The common feelings of humanity have been so outraged by Pres. Balmaceda, in flogging men and ill-treating women, that we feel some sympathy for the Central and South American Republics, the same as with Brazil.

SOUP-KITCHENS.

There are at present so many thousands of persons in a destitute condition, owing to the crisis, that it is expedient for the Government to take immediate steps for the establishment of soup-kitchens. More than 20,000 persons have been receiving every night into the Salvation Army shelter at Barracas, and as our community is numerically small this will serve to convey an idea of the number of paupers of other nations.

THE SITUATION.

The semi-official declarations published by our colleague La Nación removed a great weight off the public mind yesterday. According to our colleague's statements, the President of the Republic is in the process of making a new cabinet, and the Minister of Finance is expected to be a free-lance.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

LONDON, March 21st.

The Queen has expressed her gratification at the cordial and respectful reception accorded her on her arrival at Grasse, and is declared to be delighted with the situation of the country, and the arrangements made for her comfort.
